

Esercizio 1

1. The children get up at eight o'clock to have breakfast.
2. 'Shut up! This is not the time for making noise!'
3. After the crash my legs hurt: it was very difficult to stand up.
4. What time does the plane take off?
5. 'Sit down in the chair, please', said the doctor.
6. I'm going to ring up the station and ask about the trains.
7. Mr and Mrs Smith, the neighbours, are going to look after the children for an hour.
8. We'll buy a smaller house when the children have grown up and left home.
9. She had a terrible shock when her father passed away.

Esercizio 2

1. How are we going to get round this problem?
2. We decided to cut down the tree.
3. It's a nice dress: would you like to try it on?
4. The government wants to close down the factory
5. I couldn't accept his offer so I turned it down
6. She looks like her mother: don't you think she takes after her?
7. It's too wet for football. I think we'll have to call it off.
8. She has a small pension. She lives off that.